LOCAL SPEAKERS.

Several Fine Meetings Held In Christian County.

Bush, Perry, Allensworth, Duffy and Waide on the Stump.

Dennis R. Perry and Chas. H. Bush filled two speaking appointments last week and had fine crowds at both places.

At Perry's School House Friday night there were not less than 150 people, and great interest and enthusiasm was manifested. There were many ladies present and the crowd more than filled the commodious school house, many standing around the door and windows outside.

Both speakers made addresses of an hour or more in length, which were heard attentively to the close.

The party is united and confident in that banner Democratic district and the biggest Democratic majority for years will be returned.

Jas. B. Allensworth spoke at Lafayette Saturday afternoon to a crowd of 100 people and made a fine argument for the ticket, and greatly pleased an appreciative audience. It was Mr. Allensworth's debut as a political speaker, but he displayed a fine capacity for grouping facts and bringing out the strong points, and his address undoubtedly did good for the ticket. He has another appointment for the 30th at Elmo, and will in all probability have a big crowd. The speaking will take place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

John C. Duffy and Ed. C. Waide spoke at Haddock's School House Friday night to a good crowd, and found the Democrats to a man in line for the ticket. All Democrats are awake to the importance of doing their duty and may be relied upon to vote the straight ticket in that part of the county.

Owing to a failure to distribute the bills for J. T. Hanbery's appointments last week, the dates were postponed till this week. He will speak at East's School House Friday night and at Pool's Mill Saturday night of this week.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Fall Term Began Yesterday—List of Grand Jurors.

Circuit Court convened here yesterday and will remain in session six weeks. The appearance docket is the smallest for years, there being only 97 cases of this character. The total number of cases on the docket is 545. The most important case to come up for trial is the Wadlington case which is set for Monday, October 9, the 13th day of the term. After the grand jury was charged Judge Cook adjourned court until this morning, when the petit juries will be made up. Following is a list of the grand jurors: W. W. West, foreman; W. C. Davis, C. S. Coleman, D. A. Wilbert, R. T. Chilton, C. H. King, D. H. Merritt, T. G. Campbell, T. E. Layne, P. E. Sherrell, J. R. Boyd, and Chas. F. Jackson.

FARM HAND FALLS.

Under a Loaded Wagon and is Fatally Crushed.

Cross Adams, a young colored farm hand, working for Mr. R. Y. Pendleton, Jr., near Pembroke, was run over by a loaded wagon Friday afternoon and so badly crushed that he died in a few minutes. Adams was on the wagon, driving down a hill, when one of the wheels struck a stump, and he was thrown off. After being injured he got up and walked about forty yards to a fence and fell dead. He was 16 years old and a son of Sam Adams.

Mrs. Allen M. Wallis has returned from Dawson, where she spent a week.

COUNTY BOARDS.

State Board Appoints Good Men For Commissioners.

Republicans Given a Representative In Every County—John Feland Appointed.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 21.—The state board of election commissioners, Messrs. Pryor, Ellis and Poyntz, convened today and in a very short time announced the appointments of county election commissioners that were of most interest.

For Jefferson county they appointed John W. Barr, Fred Hoertz and Asher G. Caruth.

This was a surprise to everybody, and it fairly stunned the Republicans who had their mouths already in position to howl.

John W. Barr is the former United States district judge, a Republican and one of the most eminent citizens of Kentucky. He with other Republicans and Democratic bolters had been very active in urging the commissioners to appoint David W. Flanighan or Robert E. Woods. To show these people their determination to have a perfectly fair election in Jefferson county the commissioners concluded to appoint Judge Barr himself.

Fred Hoertz is a leading German citizen of Louisville, a man of property and high character and a Democrat.

Asher G. Caruth was for several terms a member of congress and before that commonwealth's attorney. He is a leading member of the Louisville bar and a sterling Democrat.

Such appointments as these can not fail to satisfy all reasonable men. The other appointments were mainly the same as last year, when it was generally conceded there was never such a fair election in Kentucky. The appointments in this vicinity were as follows:

Daviess county—C. W. Bransford, Dem.; Louis D. Baer, Dem.; J. P. Heavrin, Rep.

Breckinridge county—M. Tice Jolly, Dem.; John Jennings, Dem.; Taylor Beard, Rep.

Christian county—Isaac Garrott, Dem.; Chas. M. Meacham, Dem.; John Feland, Rep.

Hancock county—C. T. Duncan, Dem.; W. W. Taber, Dem.; Geo. Newton, Rep.

LIMBERNECK.

A Tennessee Fancier Gives His Experience and Suggests a Remedy.

What is known as "limberneck" in this section is supposed to be caused by fowls eating live maggots from decayed animal matter, usually a dead fowl unnoticed until too late.

I have opened the crops of a number of affected fowls and invariably found the live maggot, which nearly always proves fatal.

This has been the experience of a number of farmers in this section. My idea is that the fowl devours a number of the live maggots which go into the crop unharmed. The maggot retards and in turn begins to devour the crop of the fowl, which produces a paralysis of the muscles of the neck and the nerves, and soon kills the fowl. This one will furnish enough to kill a dozen or more fowls as the case may be and each one of these, a dozen or more, and so on indefinitely, or until the whole yard is affected or killed. I have given a few drops of turpentine with some success. The principal thing is to examine premises carefully and burn all decaying animal matter and thus get rid of the cause. I do not write this as from an M. D. or V. S., but from my own observation of what I call "limberneck." Hoping this may be of some use or benefit to poultrydom, and especially the farmer where the runs of the fowls are not very closely looked after, I am, yours for the success of F. F.

O. B. SULLIVAN.

Boonville, Tenn., Sept. 17, '99.

Apoplexy.

During the extremely warm days it is not unusual to find a dead bird under the roost from no apparent cause. It is seldom that this happens to pullets or growing chicks, but mostly with hens. It is caused by high feeding, and especially when grain is allowed in summer. It cannot be prevented after the fowls are laid, except by shutting off the food and allowing plenty of fresh water, a cool, shady location being also provided. It is sometimes the case that the healthiest hens are the ones that die suddenly, as apoplexy does its work quickly and without warning. Over-feeding is mostly done with soft food. It is placed in a trough, and the fowls are allowed to help themselves, the consequences being that some get more than their share while others get much less, the fortunate ones becoming fat and lazy, and all of them reaching the same condition later. Soft food should not be considered as a meal, but only a part thereof, hence the fowls should never be given more than one half the quality they would eat.—Poultry Keeper.

A Year's Feed.

Those who desire to know how much food a flock of hens will require in a year may be interested by the statement that the poultry manager of the Canada Experiment Farm kept an accurate account of what he fed out to a flock of fifty hens, mixed and thoroughbreds, in one year—1,882 pounds of wheat, 244 pounds of oats, 281 pounds of barley, 440 pounds of ground grains in mash, or 2,867 pounds of grain at 1 cent a pound. They also had 244 pounds of cut green bone, at the same price, 364 pounds of cold refuse meat at 1½ cts. a pound, and 8 pounds and 7 ounces of blood meal at 4 cts. a pound. They also were given vegetables and grit to the value of $4, making the total expense for food $30.27, or 80½ cents per fowl for the year, 57½ pounds of grain and nearly 13 pounds of meat each.—Poultry Keeper.

RIINED BY A ROOSTER.

How a Dog Became a Drunkard by Force of Bad Example.

A peculiar instance of what bad example will do is illustrated in the cases of a rooster and a dog owned by a keeper of a suburban road house. The man had run a saloon in this city for a number of years, but being possessed of a fondness for country life he recently decided to gratify his tastes, and he opened a road-house not far from High Bridge. He was fond of hens and one of the first things he did was to get a number of them. In the bery was a big rooster, and it wasn't long before the former saloon keeper noticed that the rooster was frequently in the bar-room. He soon discovered that the attraction for the bird was one of the regular customers. Every time this customer came in he would soak scraps of bread in beer and throw them to the rooster, which devoured them with apparent relish. As the man made a number of trips to the bar each day, it soon fell out that the rooster was invariably tipsy by evening. In this condition the rooster would perform all kinds of antics, much to the amusement of a crowd of loungers.

But here is where the bad example part of the story comes in. The saloon keeper has a Newfoundland dog of which he is especially fond. For six years the dog had been around the city saloon without showing the slightest liking for intoxicants. As soon, however, as the dog saw the means by which the rooster became so hilarious he began to devote attention to the drip pans under the beer kegs, the dregs in which he greedily drank. In a short time the dog had the "beer habit," too. This greatly annoyed the road-house keeper, and in his wrath he decided to kill the rooster, hoping that by doing away with the "evil influence," as he put it, the dog would reform. But it was of no use, and now the dog has become an inveterate toper, and may be seen daily staggering about the bar-room a sad example of canine depravity.—New York Sun.

several places at once. Lots of people have catarrh in the head, bronchitis, indigestion and kidney disease, and it is all catarrh.

When catarrh is understood it must be plain that no local treatment can reach it. Catarrh is systemic; it must be plucked out by the roots. The same remedy will cure catarrh wherever it is located if it will cure it anywhere.

Pe-ru-na has a spotless record as a cure for all catarrhal troubles. It has cured many thousands during its forty years of use by Dr. Hartman. Read this letter from W. O. Slesser, Reinbeck, Ia.:

EXPRESS CHARGES

On Poultry—Use Nothing but Wood on Your Coop.

A coop made of wood slats, solid and firm, lined inside by tacking on canvas, containing five birds, weighing only forty-seven pounds, and billed from the place of shipment with $1.25 charges, was received in Indianapolis, its destination. After its arrival, the agent at Indianapolis doubled the rate and collected $2.50 express charges.

On inquiries at the office of the express company, we were informed that the canvas in the coop caused the doubling of the rate and they gave us a copy of their instructions from the company, viz:

"If cloth covering is used, will be double merchandise rate. Use nothing but wood in your coop."

This is a distinction without a difference, but as long as cloth gives them an excuse for doubling the rate, although it does nothing toward strengthening or supporting the coop itself, still they take advantage of it. Hence it is well for those who ship birds from one point to another to make their coops wholly of wood, and thus secure one or merchandise rate, otherwise, the chances are that the consignee will be compelled to pay "double rate." We have looked into this case carefully and therefore give this advice intelligently, and find that the companies' instructions to their employees are so general that any cranky express hand, who bills or receives the goods, can charge double rates if cloth is used in the construction of the coop, even to the lining of the same to keep out frosts or to prevent them from putting their heads out, as in this instance, the cloth only served for such purpose, and there is no show for correcting the same so long as the cloth is there to sustain the charges.—Fanciers Gazette.

In order to introduce our Beautiful Flowering Bulbs we have decided to give $200.00 in cash to the person making the longest list of words formed from the letters as follows:

F-L-O-W-E-R-S

Take the letters as shown here and form as many words as you can, using the letters backwards or forwards, but don't use any letter in the same word more than once. It is interesting and instructive to see how many small words can be correctly spelled using only these seven letters: for example, so, flow, flew, etc., etc. The Eagle Bulb & Seed Company will pay $200.00 in cash to the person making the largest list of words formed as above. If you are good at word making and wish to earn the $200.00 write your name and address plainly on your list and enclose the same with fifteen two-cent stamps for ten beautiful Flowering Bulbs of ten popular and different varieties. Our object in giving this $200.00 is to attract attention to and introduce our Bulbs all over the world. This offer will be carefully read and conscientiously carried out and it should not be classed with "Catch-penny affairs." We will spend a large amount of money to introduce our Bulbs more times than we have and we will not be satisfied until we have earned the $200.00. Satisfaction is absolutely guaranteed or your money will be promptly refunded. Send your list as early as possible. Address

Isn't it about time to start the Brownie petition?

New York's welcome to Dewey Thursday will cost a million dollars.

The Louisville Democrats have gotten together and nominated their local and legislative tickets yesterday.

The Republicans are still trying to get Gov. Bradley on the stump, but have found it a hopeless task so far.

The KENTUCKIAN knows so well what Bill Owens will say tomorrow, that it is almost tempted to write up his speech in advance.

Evan Settle spoke at Hartford Saturday and made a fine Democratic speech. He is making some of the best speeches heard in this campaign.

Senator Wellington predicts the defeat of the Republican ticket in New Jersey and has been invited to resign the state chairmanship in consequence.

Next Tuesday is the day for city voters to register. Those who fail to register, unless prevented by sickness or absence, will lose their votes in November.

The State Election Commission adjourned Saturday after appointing the county boards in all but ten counties. These will be appointed one day this week.

The time has come to train the guns on the enemy in front. Never-mind the bushwhackers. The fight is in the open now and guerrilla warfare is not in order.

The Hon. Bill Owens has changed the hour of his "To Men Only" address in behalf of the Brownie ticket from 7:30 p. m. to tomorrow night to 10 p. m. in the afternoon. The Hon. Bill enjoys the distinction of being the only one-term Congressman the Ashland district has had Senator Goebel has finished his tour in the mountains, concluding in Morgan and Wolfe counties Saturday, making two speeches. Much of the trip, covering two weeks, was made on horseback, and everywhere the reception given the next Governor was most cordial. Even in the sparsely settled counties, his crowds were very large and enthusiastic. Nowhere was the affection found to be any worse in the Democratic party than on the Republican side.

Of course Senator Goebel will pay no attention to the letter of Jas. W. Caldwell, who is a chronic bolter and a meddler in things that do not concern him. If the Hallam brothers are not satisfied that Senator Goebel told the truth about the "lost, strayed or stolen" brother, their remedy is in the courts in an action for slander. The man who defended himself from Theodore Hallam's venom is both legally and personally responsible for the unpleasant disclosure he made.

Senator Goebel's tour of the Tenth district led to such satisfactory results that he may invade the Republican stronghold in the Eleventh district before the campaign is over. He will spend this week in the central part of the state, speaking at Versailles, Flemingsburg, Palomouth, Cynthiana and Winchester.

Sunday's Courier-Journal contained a sixteen-page supplement descriptive of the renovated office building and the various departments of the Courier-Journal plant. Some of the pages were in color work. All of the work including the half-tour illustrations, was done on the Courier-Journal's own presses.

There is no use for Democratic speakers to pay any further attention to the Brownies. As long as the Bill Breckinridges, the Bill Owens, the Bill Sweeneys and others of that ilk are going about the State abusing the Democratic ticket, the Brownie movement will continue to dry up in the pod.

Gen. Joe Wheeler had a scrap with Filipinos last week and asked Gen. Otis for cavalry to follow them up, but was told to wait till October. Otis has such a good thing of it, that he is in no hurry to end the war.

Chas. T. Armistead, a colored orator, is answering the opponents of the Democratic party in the Central Kentucky counties. He spoke at Mt. Sterling Saturday to 800 people.

Owensboro's big woolen mills were totally destroyed by fire Friday night, entailing a loss of $87,500, only half covered by insurance. About 125 people were thrown out of employment.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tubes. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is not only clogged, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by "catarrh," which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

Are Having the Yellow Fever at Key West.

The Disease Is Not Under Control and a Suspicious Case is at Miami.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 24.—Dr. Jackson, the health agent at Miami, to-day reported a suspicious case of illness there, though he stated he hardly thought it was yellow fever. Dr. Horsey, of the Health Board, was instructed by Dr. Porter by wire from Key West to go there at once and investigate fully, and if he found it to be yellow fever to report it. Dr. Porter believes in giving the facts in all cases to the public as soon as fully ascertained.

Key West reports thirty new cases to-day and two deaths. Business is suffering there greatly from the epidemic and the outlook is discouraging. Several days last week the island was threatened with no ice and no electric lights on account of the sickness of the employees at these plants. None of the native negroes or the colored element from the Bahamas has not yet taken the fever though several of the darkeys from the mainland are down.

The Hopkinsville boys and the Fairview team played a game of ball at the latter place Friday afternoon. The score resulted in favor of Fairview, the score being 18 to 12. The first game was played a few days before and was won by Hopkinsville by a score of 12 to 10. The third game of the series will probably be played here Friday.

Mrs. J. P. Braden has returned from a visit to Dawson Springs.

TWO SPEECHES.

Hon. Jas. B. Garnett Woke the Echoes Yesterday.

Followed By Mr. O. A. Stanley With Another Good Democratic Speech.

Hon. Jas. B. Garnett made a fine Democratic speech at the Court House yesterday afternoon at one o'clock.

He is always a favorite here and his appointment was looked forward to with more than ordinary interest in view of the fact that he was a strong Hardin man.

The Court House was well filled with a crowd representing all parties. Mr. Garnett was not very well, but he spoke for about an hour, making a strong argument for the support of the whole ticket. His eloquence called forth much applause and enthusiasm and his appeal to Democrats did much to remove the little disaffection still remaining. Mr. Garnett has been invited to speak at Pembroke and will probably do so one night in the near future.

Mr. Owsley A. Stanley, of Henderson, arrived on the 2 o'clock train and followed Mr. Garnett with a splendid speech. He too was a Hardin man before the convention. His speech was an earnest and eloquent appeal to Democrats to remain true to their party and redeem the state from Republican misrule. Mr. Stanley is a fluent speaker, a polished orator and a young man of brains and fine presence. His speech was a most creditable effort.

Mr. John Overmyer.

Hon. John Overmyer, of Columbus, Ind., arrived yesterday afternoon from Madisonville, where he spoke to a big crowd in the Tabernacle. Hon. J. N. Kehoe also spoke after Mr. Overmyer, and the Democrats had an enthusiastic rally. At the same hour L. P. Tanner and Geo. A. Prentice spoke in the Court House in the interest of the Browne ticket, to a small crowd.

Mr. Overmyer will speak at one o'clock this afternoon at the Court House and we bespeak for him a big crowd. He is a well posted and able speaker and devotes himself principally to national issues.

Not Organized Yet.

The local board of election commissioners failed to organize yesterday, as the members had not received their commissions. They will organize immediately upon the receipt of their commission and appoint the officers for the city registration next week.

PRACTICAL HELP FOR SUFFERING WOMEN

THE ills of women overshadow their whole lives. Some women are constantly getting medical treatment and are never well. "A woman best understands women's ills," and the women who consult Mrs. Pinkham find in her counsel practical assistance. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

MRS. MABEL GOOD, Correctionville, Ia., tells how Mrs. Pinkham saved her life. She says:

"I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me. I can recommend it as one of the best medicines on earth for all women's ills. I suffered for two years with female weakness and at last became bedfast. Three of our best doctors did me no good so I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking a few bottles of your medicine, I was able to do all my household work. I know that your medicine raised me from a bed of sickness and perhaps death, and am very thankful for what it has done for me. I hope that every suffering woman may be persuaded to try your medicine."

Get Mrs. Pinkham's advice as soon as you begin to be puzzled. The sick headaches and dragging sensation come from a curable cause. Write for help as soon as they appear.

MRS. DOLE STANLEY, Campbellsville, Ind., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I was troubled with sick headache and was so weak and nervous, I could hardly go. A friend called upon me one evening and recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, saying that she knew that it would cure me. I then sent for your medicine and after a few bottles I was cured."

Send for your medicine and after a few bottles I was cured."

A Fable for Parents.

A certain mother had a beautiful child. And he had attained to four years. Long were his curls, red were his cheeks; his eyes were lustrous, his expression cherubic. But he was possessed of a spirit of mischief, which tried his mother sorely, so that she cried out, "Oh, I wish that you were ten years older, that you might be less care!"

Now, the mother was proud of her handsome babe, for there was a charm about him that envelops only those who still retain recollections of the spirit land from whence they came.

Even as she spoke, there appeared a fairy unto her, who said, "Oh, foolish woman, it shall be to thee even as thou hast wished. Kiss thy babe farewell. Thou shalt be spared the trials and responsibilities and anxieties that would surround his life through childhood, and even now shalt thou have thy son that is to be."

And the lovely babe, with chubby hands outstretched, as though he would kiss his mother, vanished in a mist. And a desolation spread over the woman's heart, for there came to her a tall, ungainly youth. Long were his legs, red were his hands, shambling was his gait, and his face was homely. And he made as though he would caress her, but she drew back in horror and said, "This is not my child, but a changeling. Give me back my rosy boy, my darling, my comfort. Let me feel his soft arms around my neck, and I will bear his waywardness and my responsibilities. What if I have gained a son, when I have lost my baby?"

And there came a sound of mocking laughter.—By Charles Battell Loomis, in Demorest's Magazine for October.

'Entertainment.'

A delightful entertainment was given at the home of Mrs. Myna Wood, near Sinking Fork, last Saturday night. A large crowd being present. Those present were as follows: Misses Ellie Murphey, Susie Wooley, Cornelia Cavanaugh, Sallie Cavanaugh, Pearl Smith, Lula Stevens, Vera Stevens, Eva Stevens, Ellen Hill, Nina Hill, Ruby Hiser, Elsie Diuguid, Lizzie Wood, Minnie Wood, Mattie O'dell, Heles Wood, Hattie Wood and Myra Wood. Messrs Robert Cook, Lucian Murphy, John Murphy, Lucian Murphy, Walter Wood, Willie Buie, Zip Cavanaugh, Cerge Cavanaugh, Jos. Cornelius, Walter Witty, Herbert Hurt, William Cornelius, Garvin O'dell, Henry Wood, John Underwood, Herschel Wooley, Riley Wood and many others whose names are unknown to the writer.

Demorest's makes no pretense of being an inclusively woman's magazine. Its special articles on scientific subjects, treated in a popular manner by well-known writers, are of general interest to men as well as women the world over. Beautifully illustrated articles of research, exploration and travel are also a special feature of Demorest's Magazine. The Demorest's "Portrait album" is a unique feature of this magazine. Every month there are nice photographs of famous men and women, beautifully printed on good paper. Many of these pictures are extremely difficult to get, and have never before been published. And besides all the well-selected matter of general interest, the material furnished, which is of particular value to women, is of the widest possible range and the most practical nature.

A COMPLICATED CASE.

Man with a Grievance Got Mixed Up

A man went to the desk of an official in the city hall and asked: "When does a dog become a nuisance?"

The city hall man said he was not the dog man.

"I have a peculiar grievance," the caller proceeded. "Don't get it into your head that the dog is tied up or that he is dangerous, or that he is killing chickens or licking the dogs of other people. If he was doing any of these things he could go to the demotion bow-wow, so far as I am concerned. No, sir. This is a personal grievance. Give me a match."

"As I just said to you," replied the official, "my department has no sort of connection with animals or nuisances, but as these are dog days, and this is my day off, I'll take your complaint and see that it gets to the proper department. What sort of a dog is it?"

"I don't know, and I don't know that that has anything to do with the case."

"Perhaps not, but we've got to make a beginning. You have seen the dog?"

"You presume too much. I never saw the dog. But I know a dog when I hear one."

"All right. What does the dog do?"

"The dog is not to blame; I don't want the dog hurt."

"Didn't you ask when you came in here when a dog becomes a nuisance?"

"Maybe I did. But what I meant was when do people force a dog to become a nuisance?"

"Then your grievance is against the people—not the dog?"

"Well, if you want to put it that way, all right."

"What is the name of the person who has the dog?"

"I don't know. The dog is not his, anyway."

"I suppose you think the city of New York will send a man to a house to find out the name of the person who has somebody else's dog that is making a nuisance of itself. How much of the planet do you think is coming to you?"

"Let me get in a few remarks so as to save you any concern about my options on the earth. It's this way: A man next door to me owns a dog. "What's his name?"

"I don't know. He goes off on one of these fool vacations for his health, and he is one of the huskiest-looking individuals in the block. He leaves his dog behind. Dog is all right in his place if they'd let him alone."

"If who would let him alone?"

"The man who is a friend to the man who owns the dog. The dog is kept in the basement all week, and as long as they keep him in his place he's all right. But Sunday is the dog's day out. That's my day at home. I mean that Sunday is the dog's day out of the cellar, not out of the house. The friend of the dog's master brings the dog up into his apartment on Sunday. There is a cat in the house, and also a parrot. The friend of the dog's master sicks the dog on the cat. The wife of the house takes the cat's part. Then the parrot cuts in and says a lot of stuff, and the dog keeps up the bark, bark, bark until I am distracted. The window of my room opens on the court. The window of the room of the man who sicks his friend's dog on his wife's cat opens on the court."

"And you want to know when the dog becomes a nuisance?"

"No, sir. I want to know what right a man has who owns a dog to go away and leave him for some one to take care of, and what right the man who takes care of the dog has to bring the dog upstairs and tease him, and make him bark as if he saw the moon."

"I think your action is against the owner of the dog."

"You bet it would be, and mighty lively action at that, if I knew where to find him."

"The man, of course, must have a permit to keep the dog."

"Permit be hanged! What permit have I to stop this nuisance?"

"You might move, you know."

"I suppose I've got to get a permit to do that, haven't I? It has come to a pretty pass when the owner of a dog can go to the seashore and leave this kiddie with his friend, who turns him loose in the house on Sunday. I feel as if I was living next door to the dog pound."

The complaintant cut the wire and disappeared, declaring he would see about this.—N. Y. Sun.

Have by some surgeon Shylock on thy charge to stop his wounds lest he do bleed to death. People bleed to death. The loss of blood gives the body strength. The strengthening effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in large part due to its action on the blood-making glands, and the increased supply of pure, rich blood it produces. It is only when the blood is impoverished and impure that disease is thrown on it, which it cures. The "Discovery purifies the blood and makes it antagonistic to disease. When the body is emaciated, the lungs are weak, and there is chronic lunging cough, "Golden Medical Discovery" puts the body on a fighting footing against disease, and so increases the vitality that disease is thrown on it, which it cures. It has cured thousands who were helpless and hopeless, and who had tried all other means of cure without avail. A Fable for Parents.

A certain mother had a beautiful child. And he had attained to four years. Long were his curls, red were his cheeks; his eyes were lustrous, his expression cherubic. But he was possessed of a spirit of mischief, which tried his mother sorely, so that she cried out, "Oh, I wish that you were ten years older, that you might be less care!"

Now, the mother was proud of her handsome babe, for there was a charm about him that envelops only those who still retain recollections of the spirit land from whence they came.

Even as she spoke, there appeared a fairy unto her, who said, "Oh, foolish woman, it shall be to thee even as thou hast wished. Kiss thy babe farewell. Thou shalt be spared the trials and responsibilities and anxieties that would surround his life through childhood, and even now shalt thou have thy son that is to be."

And the lovely babe, with chubby hands outstretched, as though he would kiss his mother, vanished in a mist. And a desolation spread over the woman's heart, for there came to her a tall, ungainly youth. Long were his legs, red were his hands, shambling was his gait, and his face was homely. And he made as though he would caress her, but she drew back in horror and said, "This is not my child, but a changeling. Give me back my rosy boy, my darling, my comfort. Let me feel his soft arms around my neck, and I will bear his waywardness and my responsibilities. What if I have gained a son, when I have lost my baby?"

And there came a sound of mocking laughter.—By Charles Battell Loomis, in Demorest's Magazine for October.

'Entertainment.'

A delightful entertainment was given at the home of Mrs. Myra Wood, near Sinking Fork, last Saturday night. A large crowd being present. Those present were as follows: Misses Ellie Murphey, Susie Wooley, Cornelia Cavanaugh, Sallie Cavanaugh, Pearl Smith, Lula Stevens, Vera Stevens, Eva Stevens, Ellen Hill, Nina Hill, Ruby Hiser, Elsie Duguid, Lizzie Wood, Minnie Wood, Mattie O'dell, Helen Wood, Hattie Wood and Myra Wood. Messrs Robert Cook, Lucian Guthrie, John Murphy, Lucian Murphy, Walter Wood, Willie Buie, Jip Cavanaugh, Carge Cavanaugh, Jos. Cornelli, Walter Witty, Herbert Hort, William Cornelli, Garvin O'dell, Henry Wood, John Underwood, Herschel Wooley, Riley Wood and many others whose names are unknown to the writer.

Demorest's makes no pretense of being an exclusively woman's magazine. Its special articles on scientific subjects, treated in a popular manner by well-known writers, are of general interest to men as well as women the world over. Beautifully illustrated articles of research, exploration and travel are also a special feature of Demorest's Magazine. The Demorest's "Portrait album" is a unique feature of this magazine. Every month there are nine photographs of famous men and women, beautifully printed on good paper. Many of these pictures are extremely difficult to get, and have never before been published. And besides all the well-selected matter of general interest, the material furnished, which is of particular value to women, is of the widest possible range and the most practical nature.

A COMPLICATED CASE.

Man with a Grievance Got Mixed Up Over a Dog.

A man went to the desk of an official in the city hall and asked: "When does a dog become a nuisance?"

"The city hall man said he was not the dog man."

"I have a peculiar grievance," the caller proceeded. "Don't get it into your head that the dog is tied up or that he is dangerous, or that he is killing chickens or licking the dogs of other people. If he was doing any of these things he could go to the demotion box-wis, so far as I am concerned. No, sir. This is a personal grievance. Give me a match."

"As I just said to you," replied the official, "my department has no sort of connection with animals or nuisances, but as these are dog days, and this is my day off, I'll take your complaint and see that it gets to the proper department. What sort of a dog is it?"

"I don't know, and I don't know that that has anything to do with the case."

"Perhaps not, but we've got to make a beginning. You have seen the dog?"

"You presume too much. I never saw the dog. But I know a dog when I hear one."

"All right. What does the dog do?"

"The dog is not to blame; I don't want the dog hurt."

"Didn't you ask when you came in here when a dog becomes a nuisance?"

"Maybe I did. But what I meant was when do people force a dog to become a nuisance?"

"Then your grievance is against the people—not the dog?"

"Well, if you want to put it that way, all right."

"What is the name of the person who has the dog?"

"I don't know. The dog is not his, anyway."

"I suppose you think the city of New York will send a man to a house to find out the name of the person who has somebody else's dog that is making a nuisance of itself. How much of the planet do you think is coming to you?"

"Let me get in a few remarks so as to save you any concern about my opinions on the earth. It's this way: A man next door to me owns a dog."

"What's his name?"

"I don't know. He goes off on one of these folk vacations for his health, and he is one of the huskiest-looking individuals in the block. He leaves his dog behind. Dog is all right in his place if they'd let him alone."

"If he would let him alone?"

"The man who is a friend to the man who owns the dog. The dog is kept in the basement all week, and as long as they keep him in his place he's all right. But Sunday is the dog's day out. That's my day at home. I mean that Sunday is the dog's day out of the cellar, not out of the house. The friend of the dog's master brings the dog up into his apartment on Sunday. There is a cat in the house, and also a parrot."

"The friend of the dog's master sicks the dog on the cat. The wife of the house takes the cat's part. Then the parrot cuts in and says a lot of stuff, the dog keeps up the bark, bark, bark until I am distracted. The window of my room opens on the court, the window of the room of the man who sicks his friend's dog on his wife's cat opens on the court."

"And you want to know when the dog becomes a nuisance?"

"No, sir. I want to know what right a man has who owns a dog to go away and leave him for some one to take care of, and what right the man who takes care of the dog has to bring the dog upstairs and tease him and make him bark as if he saw the moon."

"I think your action is against the owner of the dog."

"You bet it would be, and mightily lively action at that, if I knew where to find him."

"The man, of course, must have a permit to keep the dog."

"Permit be hanged! What permit have I to stop this nuisance?"

"You might move, you know."

"I suppose I've got to get a permit to do that, haven't I? It has come to a pretty pass when the owner of a dog can go to the seashore and leave this kiddie with his friend, who turns him loose in the house on Sunday. I feel as if I was living next door to the dog pound."

The complainant cut the wire and disappeared, declaring he would "see about this."—N. Y. Sun.

Have by some surgeon Shylock on the charge to stop his wounds lest he bleed to death." People can bleed to death. The loss of blood gives the body strength. The strengthening effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in large part due to its action on the blood-making glands and the increased supply of pure, rich blood it produces. It is only when the blood is impoverished and impure that disease finds a soil in which to root. The "Discovery" purifies the blood and makes it antagonistic to disease. When the blood is emaciated, the lungs are weak, and there is obstinate lingering cough, "Golden Medical Discovery" puts the body on a fighting footing against disease, and so increases the vitality that disease finds a soil in which to root. The "Discovery" restores the physical health perfectly and permanently. It has cured thousands who were hopeless and helpless, and who had tried all other means of cure without avail.

That Other 'Publican.

The following incident shows how quickly a negro can size up a political situation. Last Wednesday morning two negro boys about eighteen years old were standing on Main street one wearing a Taylor button, the other one looking at it closely. A passerby overheard this talk between them. The one who was looking at the button said: "Is that Taylor?" The other said "Yes." He looked, then said: "Who is that other 'Publican man running for governor?" The button wearer responded "Brown." He looked and said: "Yes, that's his name," and the passerby thoughtfully passed on.—Winchester Democrat.

THE WORLD

Her Exposition Will Be a Record Breaker in Point of Beauty.

IT WILL, in all probability be a rude shock to all loyal Chicagoans to learn that the coming Pan-American exposition, which will be the national event in the year 1901, will be a more beautiful exposition than was the great one at Chicago; will, in fact, be the most beautiful ever held, and with the sole exception of the World's Columbian exposition will be the largest.

It's rather a broad statement to say that anything could be more beautiful than the Court of Honor at the great exposition of 1893, particularly at night, when the management of the exposition which is expected to do so much for Buffalo, and, in fact, for all humanity, started on the task of planning, the pictures of the Chicago fair were before them.

"It is your task to excel that outlay," was in effect the orders that the architects and artists were given. "Don't plan on so vast a scale, but make the courts, the lagoons, the buildings and the special features more beautiful."

It was a hard contract to fulfill, but the skillful gentlemen composing the advisory board wrought so well and planned with such consummate skill and taste that when their plot plan was submitted to Director of Works Carlton and to Messrs. Bland and Sprague, of the construction committee, it was accepted with acclivity.

This plot plan, which embraces about 335 acres of land, shows that the man-space, and from foundation to the glittering dome it will be 300 feet in height. On three sides it will be an ornate, magnificent mass of architectural beauty, with quaint and beautiful electrical lights concealed in the interstices of the domes and minarets with which the structure will be ornamented. These three sides of the great structure will be fine, but it will be on the remaining side that the skill of the architect, the electrical experts, the artists and the sculptors will be extended to the limit of human ingenuity, skill and taste. Here the building will have a groto effect from the ground to the roof, and this groto will be a mass of fountains and cascades, the entire groto, which will be many yards in width, being completely filled from the ground to the top of the structure with a tumbling mass of vari-colored water steps, for the fountains will cascade from the top of the building to the ground, a series of ornamental fountains placed above, series, forming the steps.

At the apex there will be 14 fountains grouped about the standpoint, which will be entirely concealed. Electricity will be the power used to force many thousands of gallons of water from the near-by Niagara river up to the dizzy height at which these fountains will be placed. As the water shoots and then falls into the basins hundreds of electric lights of various colors will play upon the purring mass, and will follow it as it flows from the broad basin in pic-

THE PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION, 1901, BUFFALO, N.Y. U.S.A.

EMBLEM OF THE PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

The beautiful emblem of the Pan-American exposition was the work of Raphael Beck, a Lockport artist, whose design was by all conceded to be the most beautiful and comprehensive of the four hundred drawings which were submitted. Nothing could more beautifully express the idea of a binding together of the people of the north, central and southern divisions of the western hemisphere than Mr. Beck's picture, which shows a woman in a white dress, with a crown on her head, as she looks down and extends a snowy arm across the isthmus of Yucatan in greeting to her sweet-faced sister of the south, who, by the way, seems fully as eager to grasp the extended hand and to do her share in the effort to bind together the north and south in the holy bonds of an all American sisterhood.

agreement has arranged for the construction of 22 principal buildings, the largest of which will be the companion buildings, namely, transportation and liberal arts. These buildings will be on opposite sides of the walk leading from the main entrance to the grounds, and each will cover 140,000 square feet of floor space. Nearly as large in size will be the Electricity and Transportation buildings, and then the main government building and the Horticultural building on either side of the Forecourt will rank next in size, each covering 100,000 square feet of floor space. The largest buildings, as have been said, will cover 140,000 square feet of space; the smallest will cover 25,000.

There will also be within the gates a partial structure, which will be much larger than any of the above mentioned buildings, but as it will not be roofed in its entirety it is not classed strictly as a building. This will be a combination of the beautiful Administration building and the Roman stadium or race course. The entrance to the Administration building will be on the passage from the main entrance to the grounds and back of that structure the walls of the great race course built in the Roman style will rise. They will extend for a distance of 1,200 feet. There will also be within the gates a great inclosure during the progress of the fair the greatest athletes in the world will be brought together to compete in feats of skill, strength, speed and daring for rich purses and prizes.

And the crowning glory of the fair, the architectural marvel of the world, will be erected within a few rods of this structure, right in the heart of the court, which, with its contributory courts, fountains and cascades, will form the most beautiful sight that the eye of man ever rested upon. This structure, nearly a mile square, as the Parisian would say, will be the electrical tower, for electricity is naturally to be the chief dominant feature of an exposition erected within a brief ride of the harnesses of Niagara, and within the corporate heart of the city to which the world has conceded the title of "The Electric City."

One picture in one's mind a narrow, sky structure, when the tower is used, but the electric tower of the Pan-American exposition will cover the

A form of disease may become so common that it is regarded as a necessary condition. In some of the valleys of Switzerland, goitre, or thick neck, afflicts every inhabitant. A party of American tourists entering one of these valleys was followed by a body of jeering children who cried, "See, these people have no goitres," as if to be without a goitre was a physical deficiency. Similarly, the prevalence of irregular periods among young women, and the commonness of debilitating drains among married women have created the mischievous idea that these are the normal conditions of womanhood.

In normal health the periods should be regular and painless and there should be neither drains nor pains for the married woman. To regain that normal condition of health is possible to every woman who will make a trial of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the periods, dries up the drains, and cures ulceration and inflammation. Sick women can consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., by letter without charge. Every letter is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential.

"I had failure of internal organs and had to go to bed once a month; had irregular monthly periods which would sometimes last ten or twelve days," writes Mrs. Alice L. Holmes, of Colchester Street, Duxbury, Mass. "I had no idea how I could not eat anything hardly. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me. I took three bottles of each, and now I feel like a new woman." Dr. Pierce's Medical Advice—sent free on receipt of stamps to cover mailing only. Twenty-one one-cent stamps for edition in paper; 37 stamps for the cloth-bound edition. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

That Other "Publican."

The following incident shows how quickly a negro can size up a political situation. Last Wednesday morning two negro boys about eighteen years old were standing on Main street one wearing a Taylor button, the other one looking at it closely. A passerby overheard this talk between them. The one who was looking at the button said: "Is that Taylor?"

The other said "Yes."

He looked, then said: "Who is that other 'Publican' man running for governor?"

The button wearer responded "Brown."

He looked and said: "Yes, that's his name, and the 'passerby' thoughtfully passed on—Winchester Democrat."

Deboe's Grammar.

It is a good thing for Kentucky that chrysanthemums are not in bloom, and the "Senator from Crittenden" will get again the opportunity of pronouncing the national flower of Japan "the most beautiful bunch of roses he has seen this year."—Glasgow News.

BUFFALO TO BEAT THE WORLD

Her Exposition Will Be a Record Breaker in Point of Beauty.

IT WILL, in all probability be a rude shock to all loyal Chicagoans to learn that the coming Pan-American Exposition, which will be the national event in the year 1901, will be a more beautiful exposition than was the great one at Chicago; will, in fact, be the most beautiful ever held, and with the sole exception of the World's Columbian exposition will be the largest.

It's rather a broad statement to say that anything could be more beautiful than the Court of Honor at the great exposition of 1893, particularly at night, but when the management of the exposition which is expected to do so much for Buffalo, and, in fact, for all humanity, started on the task of planning, the pictures of the Chicago fair were before them.

"It is your task to excel that outlay," was in effect the order that the architects and artists were given. "Don't plan to outdo a scene, but make the courts, the lagoons, the buildings and the special features more beautiful."

It was a hard entreaty to fulfill, but the skillful gentlemen composing the advisory board wrought so well and planned with such consummate skill and taste that when their plot plan was submitted to Director of Works Carlton and to Messrs. Birge and Sprague, of the construction committee, it was accepted with alacrity.

This plot plan, which embraces about 335 acres of land, shows that the man-

space, and from foundation to the glittering dome it will be 300 feet in height. On three sides it will be an ornate, magnificent mass of architectural beauty, with quietude of beautiful electrical lights concealed in the interstices of the domes and minarets with which the structure will be ornamented. These three sides of the great structure will be fine, but it will be on the remaining side that the skill of the architect, the electrical experts, the artists and the sculptors will be extended to the limit of human ingenuity, skill and taste.

Here the building will have a grotto effect from the ground to the roof, and this grotto will be a mass of fountains and cascades, the entire grove, which will be many yards in width, being completely filled from the ground to the top of the structure with a tumbling mass of vari-colored water steps, for the fountains will cascade from the top of the building to the ground, a series of ornamental fountains placed series above series, forming the steps.

As the apex there will be 14 fountains grouped about the stamper, which will be entirely concealed. Electricity will be the power used to force many thousands of gallons of water from the nearby Niagara river up to the dizzy height at which these fountains will be placed. As the water shoots and then falls into the basins hundreds of electric lights of various colors will play upon the purring mass, and will follow it as it flows from the broad basin in pic-

THE NEW YORK WORLD

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

PRACTICALLY A DAILY AT THE PRICE OF A WEEKLY.

The striking and important events of the last year have established the overwhelming value of THE TRICE-A-WEEK WORLD to every reader. For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wars and, moreover, has reported them as promptly and fully as if it were a daily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines, and the great Presidential campaign, too, at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of the TRICE-A-WEEK WORLD is improvement. It strives each year to be better than it was the year before, and its readers' confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper, not a daily, published in America.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and the KENTUCKIAN together one year for $2.50.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.

GUTHRIE'S FAIR.

Lengthy Program Arranged For Each Day of the Meeting.

Friday Set Apart as "Hopkinsville and Clarksville Day"—Two Cities to Turn Out Enmasse.

The second annual exhibition of the Guthrie Fair Association will be given this week, commencing tomorrow and lasting four days.

Five thousand dollars will be given away in purses and premiums and there will be no entrance fee for stock and no take-out. The officers of the fair association have left nothing undone to make this meeting a successful one in every way and with good weather prevailing the crowds each day will be immense.

Fine stock from all over Kentucky, Tennessee and several other states have been entered for the races and the many racing features will doubtless prove most interesting.

Friday will be "Hopkinsville and Clarksville Day", and it is safe to say that both cities will turn out large delegations, as on such an occasion old friends can mingle one with another, and spend a day in a most enjoyable manner.

A special train will be run from Madisonville to Guthrie on the last three days of the fair, passing Hopkinsville at 9:26 each morning and returning will leave Guthrie at 6:30 p. m.
